Event Title: Film Workshop by Sourav Sarkar, Film Director

Date: 19th September 2023, 12 noon

Venue: Room No. 5

On 19th September 2023, the Cine Club of Birsa Munda College organised a Film Workshop by Sourav Sarkar, a distinguished film director and writer.

Sarkar conducted an enlightening session through the exhibition and interactive analysis of his acclaimed film Anoocharito (Unuttered), which has been showcased at prestigious international and national film festivals. Sarkar's cinematic journey is marked by notable achievements. His debut short film Anoocharito is used for sensitisation by the Ministry of Home Affairs. His films, like The Milky Nails and Solitary Soul, contribute to social awareness. Continuing impactful work, films like The Humane Judicature showcase his dedication to diverse themes, resonating in contemporary cinema.

During the workshop, Sarkar delved into various aspects of filmmaking, sharing his experiences and techniques with the audience. He discussed the creative process behind Anoocharito, highlighting the thematic elements and narrative choices that shaped the film's storytelling. Attendees had the opportunity to gain valuable insights into Sarkar's approach to filmmaking, from scriptwriting to direction and production. Furthermore, Sarkar provided a glimpse into his broader body of work, discussing his past projects and the underlying themes explored in each film. From social commentary to personal narratives, Sarkar's films reflect a diverse range of perspectives and experiences, resonating with audiences across different contexts. Overall, the Film Workshop by Sourav Sarkar offered attendees a unique opportunity to learn from a seasoned filmmaker and gain deeper insights into the art and craft of cinema.
